

Technical criteria carry 80% while financial criteria carry 20% weightage. Only proposals obtaining 70% marks or above in technical section shall be considered responsive.

Evaluation shall be carried out using a Quality and Cost Selection Method, whereby the proposal offering the maximum net-profit sharing shall be awarded the highest score, while others shall be awarded scores proportionate to their respective offers.