

A Bidder may be ineligible if – he is declared bankrupt or, in the case of a company or firm, insolvent; payments in favor of the Bidder are suspended in accordance with the judgment of a court of law other than a judgment declaring bankruptcy and resulting (in accordance with the national laws) in the total or partial loss of the right to administer and dispose of its property;

legal proceedings are instituted against such Bidder involving an order suspending payments and which may result, in accordance with the national laws, in a declaration of bankruptcy or in any other situation entailing the total or partial loss of the right to administer and dispose of the property;

the Bidder is convicted, by a final judgment, of any offence involving professional conduct;

The Bidder is blacklisted and hence debarred due to involvement in corrupt and fraudulent practices, or performance failure.

The firm, supplier and contractor is blacklisted or debarred by a foreign country, international organization, or other foreign institutions for the period defined by them.

The bidder fails to provide details of litigation if filed by or against PAA or any other government organization/department or autonomous body.
