- Apart from above, additional measures deem necessary to further enhance/strengthen the firmware security shall be proposed by the firm.
- The concept of Penetration tests of firmware/software shall be proposed to impose further check & balance on the safety & security of the firmware performance embedded in the hardware of energy meters.

b) Protection of Optocom:

- Introduce atleast communication “mode C” besides “Access level 4” for data downloading through Optocom.
- Optocom maybe further protected by means of sealing with postal orders for sealing caps.
- Introduce disposable plastic seals as being used by SNGPL.

c) Security of PCB:

- Encasing/encapsulation of jumpers/EEPROMs in PCB of energy meters.

d) Overall improvement in Security:

oo) Optocom maybe further protected by means of sealing with postal orders or sealing caps.

- The meters instead of mounting individually be combined into a sealed security box which maybe designed in collaboration with M&T department.
- The last date of meter programming should be displayed in normal scroll mode.
- The list of last 10 programmer’s ID must be available in meter software report. The ID/key of each dongle/software must be unique and LESCO shall keep record of the IDs provided by the firm.

For LT TOU Meters, meter should have provision for 02 times programming (once in factory and other time while installation by M&T), after which it should be locked for further programming.
- In LT TOU meter, the tampering feature of opening the meter with warning sign, “OPENED” shall be displayed after scroll of each quantity on LCD instead of permanent display as per DDS-60:2020 (amended to date)
- As energy meter is the cashbox for any utility company, it should be protected by using all means and resources. Most of the whole current meter manufacturers are using Chinese firms as Principal firm and Chinese made firmware/hardware in their meters, Meter manufacturers should provide Japan / Europe based technologies (hardware/firmware/software) in energy meters.
- Energy meter manufactures must establish their local R&D department to strengthen the software security of their meter.
